State and County.

"OLD" "PRY" STILL "I"!

GENERAL CONNOR ELECTED!

THE LEGISLATURE STRONGLY RE-PUBLICAN!

OUR MAJORITY LARGELY REDUCED!

Several Counties Democratic!

A WARNING TO APATHETIC REPUBLICANS

Good Reasons to Compare With Next Year!

The result of the election yesterday will be a surprise—and it is to be hoped a salutary one—to those Republicans who have become so used to victory that they have deemed it unnecessary to put forth any special effort for the cause. The reverses of last Fall stimulated to the keenest degree the long deferred hopes of the Maine Democrats, and their fellows in other States, apprehending—as we have sought to arouse our people to appreciate—the importance of our election in its effects abroad, have furnished money and means for a secret but thorough canvass of the State, which has dragged out the very skeletons of the body politic to swell the Democratic vote. The cry of "hard money" has been persistently used in all quarters, and the unwholesome have been plying their wares with a vigor without a why or wherefore. The result is that while the Republicans have failed to increase their two-thirds vote in the amount usual in an election preceding a Presidential year, the Democrats have brought their force out in strength and thus largely reduced our majority and captured several especially apathetic counties.

The returns from fifteen towns show a total vote of 52,500 against 42,500 last year, an increase of 10,000, of which the Democrats have furnished 7,000 and the Republicans but 3,000. The indications are therefore that our majority may be reduced to about two-thirds in the State, although the latter returns may show more favorable. The Democrats also appear to have partially carried six counties, but have made no noticeable gains for the lower branch of the Legislature.

Our own city, while it might be thought to have been in a state of apathy in reducing Robb's former majority of over six hundred to one-fourth of that number, in spite of the desperate efforts of the candidates and influence to carry the city of his residence. The candidate for Governor had made a personal canvass of the city and throughout the day of election was active in the polls, distributing ballots and encouraging voters. In spite of all these efforts we succeeded in reducing his majority in the city down to less than one-third that of the year by the "unintended" votes of Ward One, and elected one of our candidates to the Legislature in spite of all the powers of darkness.

Our return indicate that our County is safe, though with a much reduced majority, while our reports from Ansonia and Westbrook too meagre to afford a basis for figures on the Congressional vote. General Plaisted is undoubtedly elected, although it will be several days before his majority can be definitely ascertained.

Of the result in the State we shall speak more fully hereafter. One thing is certain—the Democratic party of Maine never appeared before the people in more questionable shape or under the control of more desperate and unscrupulous managers. They have literally raked the gutters in carrying on the canvass, and the measure of encouragement which they have obtained may well excite the alarm of the thinking people of Maine, who rendered it possible by their apathy.
